Web Feet Communications Website also uses your personal information to inform you of other products or services available from Web Feet Communications. Web Feet Communications Website may also contact you via surveys to conduct research about your opinion of current activities or of potential new activities that may be offered.

Web Feet Communications Website does not sell, rent or lease its customer lists to third parties. In addition, Web Feet Communications may share data with trusted partners to help us perform statistical analysis, send you email or postal mail, provide customer support, or arrange for deliveries. All such third parties are prohibited from using your personal information except to provide these services to Web Feet Communications Website, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of your information.

Web Feet Communications Website does not use or disclose sensitive personal information, such as race, religion, or political affiliations, without your explicit consent.

Web Feet Communications Website keeps track of the Website and pages our customers visit within Web Feet Communications Website, in order to determine what Web Feet Communications Website services are the most popular. This data is used to deliver customized content and advertising within Web Feet Communications Website to customers whose behavior indicates that they are interested in a particular subject area.

Web Feet Communications Website will disclose your personal information, without notice, only if required to do so by law or in the good-faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on Web Feet Communications Website or the site; (b) protect and defend the rights or property of Web Feet Communications Website; and, (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of Web Feet Communications Website, or the public.

Use of Cookies

The Web Feet Communications Web site uses "cookies" to help you personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is placed on your hard disk by a Web page server. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to you.

One of the primary purposes of cookies is to provide a convenience feature to save you time. The purpose of a cookie is to tell the Web server that you have returned to a specific page. For example, if you personalize Web Feet Communications Website pages, or register with Web Feet Communications Website site or services, a cookie helps Web Feet Communications Website to recall your specific information on subsequent visits. This simplifies the process of recording your personal information, such as billing addresses, shipping addresses, and so on. When you return to the same Web Feet Communications Website, the information you previously provided can be retrieved, so you can easily use the Web Feet Communications Website features that you customized.

You can accept or decline cookies. Most Web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the Web Feet Communications Website services you visit.

Security of your Personal Information

Web Feet Communications Website secures your personal information from unauthorized access, use or disclosure. Web Feet Communications Website secures the personally identifiable information you provide on computer servers in a controlled, secure environment, protected from unauthorized access, use or disclosure. When personal information (such as a credit card number) is transmitted to other Web sites, it is protected by encryption, such as the Secure Socket Layer (SSL) protocol.

Changes to this Statement

Web Feet Communications Website will occasionally update this Statement of Privacy to reflect company and customer feedback. Web Feet Communications Website encourages you to periodically review this Statement to be informed of how Web Feet Communications Website is protecting your information.
